A Look to Leaders

Provincial 4-H Leaders' Conference

- November - Macdonald Hotel, Edmonton

"Tradition and Change" - a theme of continual importance in 4-H work, was discussed in depth at Provincial Leaders Conference. Key note speaker, Dr. George Kupfer of the University of Alberta provided much thought on the theme which ran throughout the entire program.

"Man; His Thoughts and Expressions" and "Man, and the Changing Society" were subjects of general sessions. Project discussions as well as developing trends in 4-H were also given consideration by the leaders present.

Regional Leader Courses

Over 900 leaders attended 22 Regional courses throughout the province. The program was developed around interests and needs of leaders with emphasis on personal involvement in the day's program.

Again this year, lunch for the leaders was sponsored by the British American Oil Company Ltd.

Junior Leadership Seminar

"Learn to Do by Doing" - our 4-H motto is certainly put into practise at the Junior Leadership Camp. Top Junior leaders from across the province have the opportunity to develop the week's program as their interest and enthusiasm grows.

Sponsored by the Edmonton Journal and Calgary Herald, the camp is staffed by persons from the Alberta Wheat Pool, United Grain Growers, as well as 4-H Staff.

The informal setting at Gold Eye Lake is conducive to relaxed, yet productive workshop sessions.

Conservation Camp

The third annual Conservation Camp was held in August with 4-H members from across the province in attendance. Sponsored by Calgary Power Ltd., and Canadian & Northland Utilities Ltd., the program dealt with various phases of conservation of water, soil, range, fish, & wildlife, etc.

Field trips, lectures, discussions, were three of the main ways subject matter was studied. Of course, besides the study aspect, social activities rounded out a very busy and interesting week's program.

Provincial 4-H Dairy Show

The annual Provincial 4-H Dairy Show, held in Red Deer August 3rd, was one of the most successful in recent years. The judges, Owen Richards and Bud Hughes found the competition keen with a total of 96 exhibitors in the three classes. Gordon Atkins of Calgary was the grand champion of the show with his yearling; with Don Chalack being the reserve grand champion with his calf. Miss Renee Bienert of Leduc received the honors in the Showmanship class which was introduced for the first time this year. The annual stall competition was won by the Talbot Multi-project club.

Provincial 4-H Light Horse Show - it's new!

The Provincial 4-H Light Horse Show was initiated in 1968 on August 27th on the Edmonton Exhibition Grounds. 39 4-H members competed for trophies and ribbons in 12 classes judged by Mr. Jim Pratt of Sarnia, Ontario. The High Point winner was Miss Renee Bienert of Leduc who received a registered quarter horse colt donated by the Bohomolec Quarter Horse Ranch of Coleman, Alberta. The runner up and recipient of the Alberta Department of Youth trophy was Miss Pat Oxtoby of Innisfail, Alberta. The Drumheller 4-H Light Horse club received an award for the best overall club display at the show.

As Others See Us

4-H Club Time - T.V. Program

In its seventh year in 1968, 4-H Clubtime continues to receive enthusiastic viewing by 4-H and non 4-H persons across the province.

The program is produced weekly by Edmonton CFRN T.V.'s Jack Benbow and planned by the 4-H staff. Viewers in the Calgary area also tuned in on 4-H Clubtime on CFCN - T.V. to see many guests, including 4-H members and leaders, present topics of interest to youth in general.

Provincial Public Speaking

Mavis Malmberg of Coaldale and Paul Riepel of Morinville won the Southern and Northern Public Speaking Finals. As their award, they attended the Saskatchewan 4-H Leadership Camp at Camp Rayner in August. They were guests of the Calgary Exhibition and Stampede Association and the Edmonton Exhibition Association.

Club Weeks

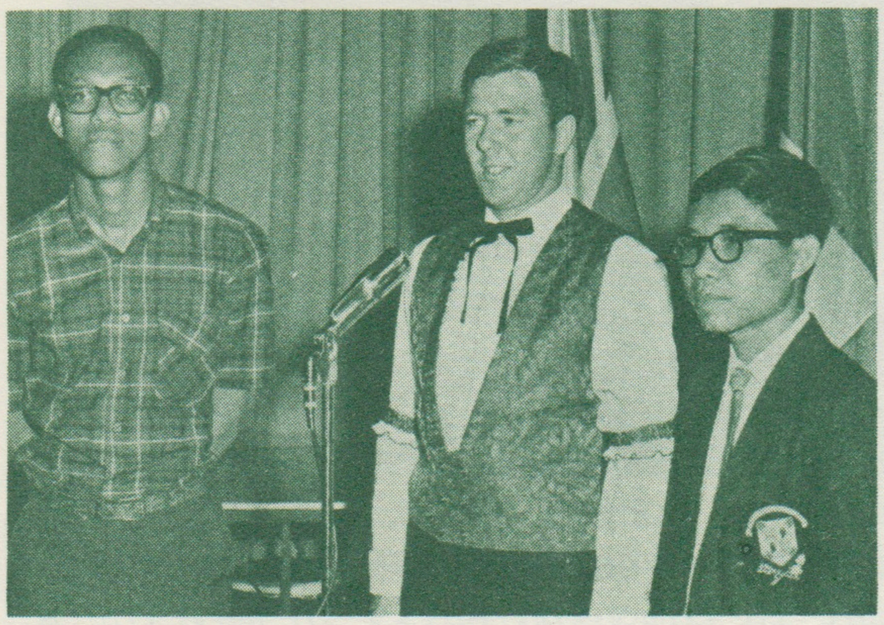
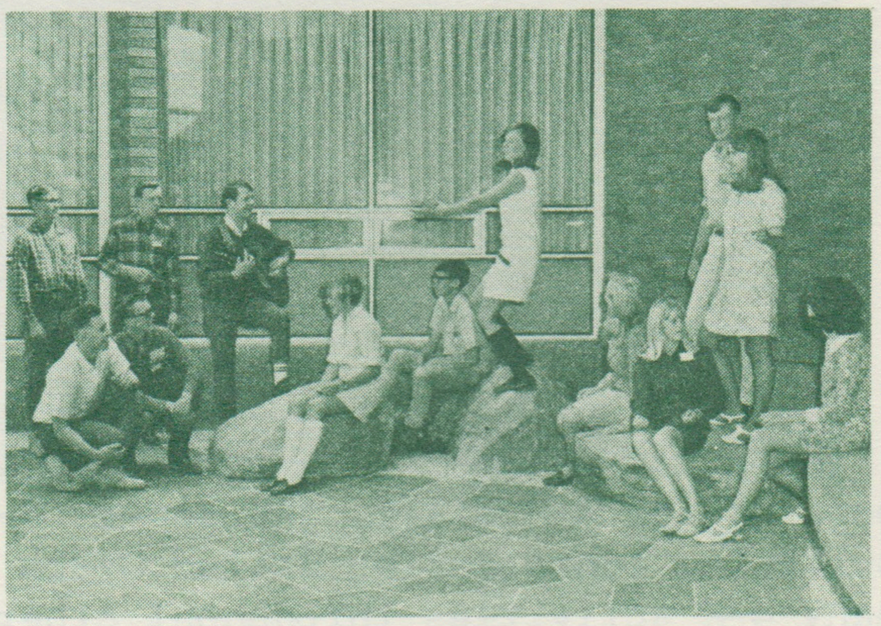
Three club weeks held at the Agricultural & Vocational Colleges at Vermilion and Olds, provided experience in fellowship and learning for over 500 young people. Workshops, discussions, recreation, social evenings, etc., were a part of a one week living together Club Week.



International flavor in Club Week Program



A typical informal group gathering

Alberta Wheat Pool Public Relations Representatives along with United Grain Growers Representatives and 4-H staff conduct the Club Week programs.

Provincial Competitions

Olds Agricultural and Vocational College was again the scene of much excitement when over 200 top 4-H members gathered to compete for major award trips. In past years, this event has been scheduled for two days. An extra day was added in 1968.

Sponsors play a large part in the continuance of this 4-H program. Representatives of many sponsoring organizations were invited to attend the awards banquet and share in the excitement as winners were named. CFRN - T.V., Calgary Herald, Edmonton Journal, Federal Grain Ltd., Alberta Wheat Pool, United Grain Growers, were only a few of the sponsors represented.

At the Conference, the delegates toured the Niagara Falls, Royal Ontario Museum, Royal Agricultural Winter Fair, saw a National League Hockey Game and actually participated in discussions. In the course of such busy days, however, each delegate still found time to form new and lasting friendships with others present.

Citizenship Travel

4-H Citizenship travel - Ontario, July - August, 1968

The Canada Secretary of State Department provided the major share of the costs of an Ontario visit for six 4-H members and four 4-H leaders. Since the group travelled by car, they had an opportunity to see much of Canada's topography and industry in depth.

Most families in Ontario went out of their way to assure their Alberta visitors of a good time.

The lucky recipients of the trip were:

Leaders

Bert Chrenek - Sexsmith
Mrs. John Trenerry - Ponoka
Allan Shenfield - Spruce Grove
Mrs. Freda Whitelock - Hughenden

Members

Bonnie Mulder - Calgary
Ron Fraser - Clyde
Melvin Heikel - Huallen

Montana 4-H State Congress

Picture Alberta's Club Week, Provincial Competitions, and Provincial Leaders' Conference all rolled up in one, and you have an idea of what Montana 4-H state Congress is really like.

Four 4-H members and ten 4-H leaders again shared in this Alberta-Montana Exchange and were delighted with the hospitality and friendliness of our southern neighbor.

This is the fifth year that Calgary Power Ltd., and Canadian and Northland Utilities Ltd., have sponsored ten top leaders, chosen for their contribution to 4-H.

U.S. National 4-H Congress - Chicago

- December, 1968

Gather 1,600 young people together in one spot and enthusiasm, excitement, and fun are in evidence. For one week, the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago was bursting with 4-H members from the U.S., Puerto Rico, Canada, Hawaii. Discussions, banquets, and entertainment (featuring the Cowsills, New Christie Minstrels, Homer & Jethro, thrilled the delegates.

Dale Hodgson, of Springbank, was "caught-up" in the aura of excitement and spent one fabulous week of his life.

Sponsor of the trip is International Minerals & Chemical Corporation (Canada) Limited.

U.S. National 4-H Conference - Washington, D.C.

- April, 1968

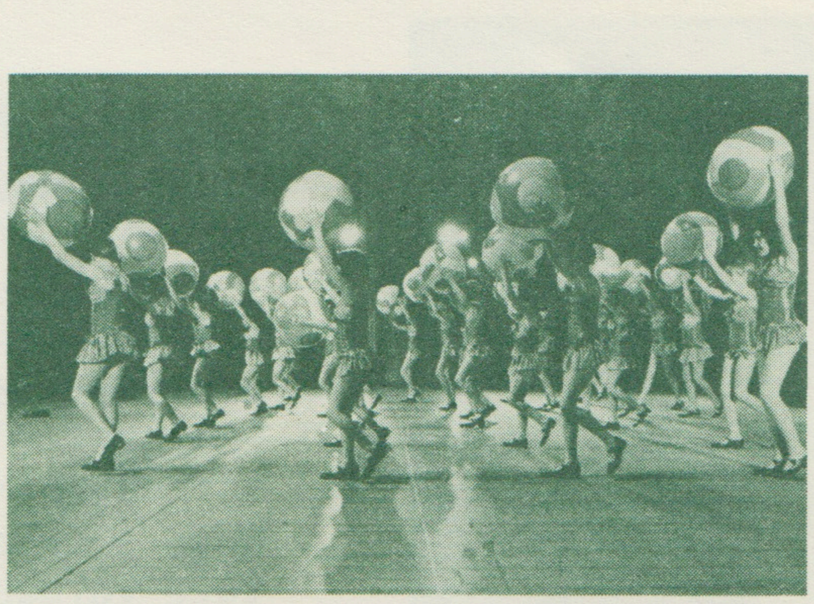
"4-H Faces the Future" - an exciting theme when discussed in depth by 230 top 4-H delegates from across the U.S., Canada, Puerto Rico, and Japan.

Canada's Parliament Hill by starlight; the fabulous city lights of New York; a visit to the White House and meeting Mrs. Johnson; Times Square on a Saturday night; are only a few of the many wonderful memories Les has of his trip to the National 4-H Conference in Washington.

Miss Judy Murta, Assistant Supervisor, 4-H Clubs in Alberta, was one of two persons selected to travel with the Canadian delegation.

Edmonton Regional 4-H Council Helps Handicapped

With the objective of helping Alberta's Children, the Edmonton Regional 4-H Council joined forces with the Alberta Tap Dancing Association. They brought Hollywood choreographer Al Gilbert to Edmonton to produce a "Dance Spectacular" to delight an audience of 1,700 at the Northern Alberta Jubilee Auditorium.



Handicapped children will be sent with money raised to Alberta summer holiday centres at Lake Isle and Bragg Creek.

Local 4-H members have assisted in beautifying the centres and in addition, have constructed and operated a miniature model farm at the Lake Isle camp for handicapped children.

Encampment for Citizenship

- a unique leadership training program

Ask Bruce Cowie of Foremost, about his 1968 summer at Great Falls--and you had better have several hours to listen! Of his experience he says "it made all other camps I have attended look very lifeless."

The Encampment for Citizenship - a six week living experience, is designed for bringing individuals together who have racial, religious, social and economic differences. "From living with these people, we were supposed to gain insight into their problems and an understanding for why they react the way they do", states Bruce.

Broce's roomates for the six weeks were a young Puerto Rican, a negro,and a Jew, all from New York City; a negro from Montgomery, Alabama, and a Peace Corp worker from New Jersey.

Bruce recalls"sitting on the campus lawns at sunset, listening to a lecture with 99 other individuals, brought a great sense of friendship and tranquility and then the next evening attending an emotional and tearful black power meeting, etched memories in my mind that I will never forget."

Weed Essay Scholarship

Janet Thompson of Delia received the North-Central Weed Conference scholarship of $300.00 for her essay on "How we control Weeds on our Farm".

Her accomplishment is one for which Janet is rather pleased since she was competing with young people in the three prairie provinces and the 15 north-central states.

Janet opened her essay with: "Weeds! Weeds! Weeds! What a menace they are! They cost us thousands of dollars, they take valuable nutrients and moisture from our soil, and they mar the beauty of our country."

Range Management - U.S. Conference

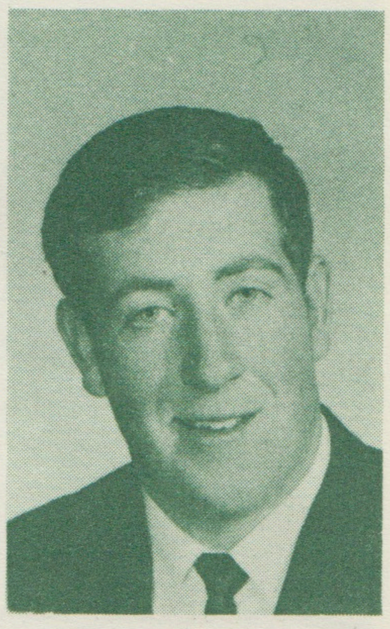
:by Dixon Shield



From February 8th to 19th last winter, I had the honor and pleasure to be the first Canadian 4-H member to attend the American Society of Range Management's annual convention. I was the only representative from Alberta, a territory of the International Mountain section, to the American Society of Range Management Convention. This convention was held at the Sheraton Western Skies Motor Hotel in Albuquerque, New Mexico, (some 2,500 miles from my home town of Barrhead), with approximately 1,000 people in attendance. All of my expenses were paid by the Inter-Mountain section of the Range Management Society. I travelled from Bozeman, Montana to Albuquerque courtesy of Mr. R. Ross, Soil Conservation officer in Montana.

The convention served a dual interest in that it contained a senior and junior forum. The senior forum was composed of professors from Western U.S. universities, Soil Conservation service men, and a few ranchers who presented the results of tests and plots that they had conducted all with the intention of bettering range management conditions. The junior forum, of which I was a delegate, was composed of college and university students from all over the Western states, and Alberta.

The purpose of the junior forum was to pool the ideas of range management practices in their areas, and to present them at this meeting, thus all the members learned a lot more about range management and general conservation practices in other states and countries. The senior and junior forums both held their annual election of officers and I was elected Vice-President of the junior forum.

As far as I was concerned, the trip to and from Albuquerque was a rich and rewarding experience in itself. To travel through the short-grass prairie regions, and only see one tree in several hundred miles, to tour the U.S. air force academy, and see the Grand Canyon, were all a part of the events that made this trip a very exciting and educational experience.

I would like to thank all of the people responsible for making this trip possible. and also for sending my name in as a recommendation. This was an experience that I will remember for the rest of my life, thanks to 4-H.

Border Brainwave:

New Hampshire - "Beer Can Sculpture"

The Odako 4-H club in Dover gathered beer and tonic containers discarded on streets and highways and built a figure of a man resembling a robot. This figure and the contest developed awareness and stimulated action to "clean-up the mess left by lazy and thoughtless occupants of cars." Picking up the cans was one of the major efforts.
